Clean Up.
At a meeting of the township board of health July 11, '84, it was decided best to give general notice as well as special ones in order that this locality may be put in as healthy a condition as possible before the coming sickly period which is now upon us. It is therefore ordered, that every person who may have upon his premises any nuisance, filth, or source of disease whatever, shall remove it before it receives the special attention of the board. Signed,
C. W. YOUNG,
C. FRED COVERT,
ELKAN L. WARNER, Board of Health.

Fred and Daisy Longwell have returned from a visit to their sister Eva at Cadillac. Daisy said her goat cried when she bade it good bye and laughed when she returned.

The "Stay Dry Goods House" presents a new "ad" this week, which it will pay our readers to examine, and then go and see for themselves how cheap they can buy goods there.

Will the democrats nominate Butler?—Paw Paw Herald headline July 19.

Well, no, not this year, some other year maybe. Cleveland is the democratic nominee.

We were the recipient last week of a box of magnificent cherries brought by Miss Grace Morris from her father's orchard in Lawton. They were of a late variety, sweet, and very large.

There is talk of the establishment of several manufacturing enterprises in our village. Proper encouragement should be given all such projects. Don't let the shirt factory fizzle discourage us.

In the skating contest last Thursday evening, between Decatur and Paw Paw, at the former place, Paw Paw was beaten. The same parties will skate in a race at the roller rink here on Thursday evening.

The 36th annual fair of the Michigan State Agricultural Society, will be held at Kalamazoo from Sept. 15th to 19th, inclusive, in connection with the 15th annual fair of the Michigan State Horticultural Society.

The address of Elder Reese on "Babyism," at the Presbyterian Church, last Sunday evening was very entertaining and interesting. The Elder has a taste and a talent for presenting ancient Jewish history in an attractive form.

Mr. E. T. Chappell has taken his son into partnership with him, and the firm is now known as E. T. Chappell & Son. They have recently added feed, crockery and glassware to their stock. We call attention to their new advertisement.

One of Paw Paw's best and most amiable young ladies came very near crossing the dark river, a few days since, by reason of inhaling ether, previous to having some of her teeth extracted. It was as close a call as well could be, and survive.

Political matters are warming up a little in South Haven. The republicans of that village were recently addressed by Hon. E. W. Keightley and Hon. J. J. Woodman, and to-morrow evening, July 25th, Hon. J. C. Burrows is advertised to speak there.

The Fire and Water committee reported that the reservoirs were nearly full, and that they thought they would prove to be all right.

The Health committee reported interviews with Mr. Morrison about sheds, and with Mr. Longwell in reference to pens and yard, and that the same had been cleaned out in a satisfactory manner.

Claims were allowed to the amount of $375.

Dr. C. S. Maynard was appointed as health officer of the village.

The chairman of the Fire and Water committee was instructed to repair the floor in the engine room, also to repair coal bin.

Adjourned for two weeks.

Obituary.
Died, at her residence in this township, about five miles east of this village, on Tuesday night, July 15th 1884, Mrs. Sylvia Olds, age 62 years. The circumstances of her death are peculiarly sad, she having, as it is supposed, committed suicide by drinking kerosene oil mingled with arsenic of other poison. Some time ago Mrs. Olds was thrown from a carriage, injuring her spine quite severely, since which time she has been subject to spells of mental aberration, during one of which she took the fatal dose that deprived her of life. She was one of the old settlers of this township and will be mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives. She was buried on Saturday the 19th inst.

Died, at his residence in this village, last Sunday morning, at eight o'clock, Dr. John W. Emery, at the ripe old age of 86 years. His funeral took place at the house, last Tuesday afternoon, and his remains were interred in the cemetery just east of the village. Dr. Emery was widely known, and highly respected. He had been ill for a long time and his death was not unexpected. The Dr. was one of the "old residents" of this village, having settled here about thirty-five years since. Probably no one was entitled to, or received a greater degree of respect in this community than did he. He was in all things a good citizen, and his many friends will receive the heartfelt sympathy of this entire community in this, their time of bereavement and affliction.

Prospect Lake.
F. D. Jacobs is working for C. E. Leslie, at Cottage Grove, Wisconsin.

Miss Sarah Cooper is entertaining the mumps. Who comes next?

Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobs visited at Mrs. L. L. Hall's, in Paw Paw, last Friday.

The wheat is garnered, and now comes the shrill whistle of the steam thrasher.

We encountered Observer last week, making observations down in the Lee district.

If you find any local items lying around loose, pick them up and hand them to the reporter, and he will give them to the public.

Extracts From Exchanges.
The Bangor postoffice has been relegated to a fourth-class office. South Haven office also reduces the salary of the postmaster $100.—Advance.

Last week Rev. W. M. Roe, formerly of this city, was riding with a friend when the horse became unmanageable and Mr. Roe jumped out to avoid danger, but he landed on his head and sustained some very serious injuries.—Douglas Republican.

Some of the Cassopolis girls made themselves so conspicuous at the depot when the Cleveland crowd passed through, on their way to and from the convention, as to become "town talk," receiving special mention in the New York Truth—Vigilant.

Monday afternoon, while out driving, Mrs. Frank Giddings, daughter of Hon. James Monroe, and Mrs. R. T. Pierce of South Haven, met with a serious and perhaps fatal accident. When near the M. E. church in that village, the horse, not being properly attached to the vehicle, became unmanageable, overturning the carriage, breaking Mrs. Giddings' left leg just above the ankle, and seriously injuring Mrs. Pierce internally.—Advance.
